

CEDIM Forensic Disaster Analysis Group (FDA)

Super Typhoon Haiyan / Yolanda – Report

14.11.2013 – Report No. 2 Supplement, Focus on Philippines – 18:00 GMT

Authors: James Daniell, Bernhard Mühr, Trevor Girard, André Dittrich, Joachim Fohringer, Christian Lucas, Tina Kunz-Plapp

As of 6.00PM, 14.11.2013, using provincial (PDRRMC), national (NDRRMC) and CEDIM analysis:-

- At least 2400 dead with additional still to be counted.
- Overall, 332,973 homes have been counted as destroyed so far. 239,915 homes have been partially destroyed.
- 1,000,000 are expected to be destroyed or damaged once counting finishes
- Region VI (Western Visayas) has counted over 380,000 destroyed and damaged houses.
- CEDIM Forensic Disaster Analysis estimates 2.1 million long-term homeless, 4.7 million currently displaced/in-need.
- Economic costs range from $9 billion to $17.5 billion (median $13.6 billion or 590 billion PHP)

See Situation Report 2 for much more analysis

http://www.cedim.de/download/CEDIM_FDA_Haiyan_Rep2.pdf

